1st Preface

I am instructed by John Story Jones of Philadelphia to offer without reserve restoration his entire collection of ### Coin of the World.

As a collector of coins and a great a dispassionate character that I feel it has not his like offer of the collection in this country. It is to describe in words some specimens is quite useful but I feel warranted in saying that from the superior condition in which the coins & the collection are that with the aid of the description & drawings in the Catalogue and purchase the desiderata being shown on the plate published as the representative

Let the collector or intending purchaser should be able to know what he may expect the collection.
Every Series is represented and the coins were selected for their historical value as well as artistic character. The series is probably the oldest collection in the United States having been formed in Baltimore in 1834 and comprising his collection. — The hobby, as a whole, all these years. Myself and Self have been honored since 1895 with the inclusion of the coins in the collection. And supplies have been all The coins embraced in this Catalogue. In other words Concepts the finest quality of the coins and with a fine example was obtained from the collection.

already possessed
As to my work the catalogue will speak for it and I trust hope will prove acceptable I have ~~not~~ described the covers I see them and I cannot help but speak of the satisfaction my Catalogue, you have given Collectors in the past. I feel that you noted that they were given a minor check-up, as that would be passed over by many, but I feel that a report should be put out to the intending ~~cat~~ purchaser.

The Covers are in such a new form that it is preservation that it has been a pleasure to describe them. I have not spent a great deal of money in the preparation of the Catalogue mistakes I have made no doubt but any of a serious nature - I trust not, I will say All the Covers are guaranteed genuine and the guarantee remains in form indefinitely.
